

Code of Conduct

Being Inclusive

- We aim to be welcoming and approachable.
- We want to make sure no one is left out.
- We accept everyone for who they are.

Being Respectful

- We aim to value ourselves, others and our environments.
- We want to be like a family/tribe who treat each other well.
- We care about the feelings, wishes and rights of others.

Respect the Net

Respect yourself

Stay safe. Keep personal information private. No meeting anyone who contacts you online.

Respect others

Respect other people's freedom to a safe, positive Internet experience. No online bullying.

Respect the law

Use only for legal purposes as appropriate to a youth centre. Nothing unlawful or offensive.

Respect other people's property

Copyrighted software, games, images, music and videos belong to people. No stealing.

Respect The King's Arms IT System

Keep KA network safe and secure. No changing settings or unauthorised access.